Postmortem on the Body of the Late Col. Everest.

Charges That He Was Poisoned Prove Unfounded.

OTHER STATE NEWS.

Capt. Barker U.S.N. and Mrs. Maxwell of Lawrence Married.

SAILED THE SEAS 38 YEARS.

One of His Experiences.

For thirty-eight years Capt. Lord followed the sea, most of that time as master of a vessel, and upon retiring from the water was appointed by the secretary of the United States Treasury to superintend the seal fisheries in Alaska, which position he held five years. He relates one experience as follows:

"For several years I had been troubled with general nervousness and pain in the region of my heart. My greatest affliction was sleeplessness; it was almost impossible at any time to obtain rest and sleep. Having seen Dr. Miles' remedies advertised I began using Nervine. After taking a small quantity the benefit received was so great that I was positively assured, thinking the remedy contained opiates which would finally be injurious to me, but on being assured by the drugist that it was perfectly harmless I continued it together with the Heart Cure. Today I can conscientiously say that Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and New Heart Cure did more for me than anything I had ever taken. I had been treated by eminent physicians in New York and San Francisco without benefit. I owe my present good health to the judicious use of these most valuable remedies, and heartily recommend them to all afflicted as I was."—Capt. A. P. Lord, Hampton, Me.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and New Heart Cure are sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5, express prepaid. They are free from all opiates and dangerous drugs.

For Sale by all Druggists.

AT THE THEATERS.

Four at the Grand and Eight at the Crawford.

There will be two "farce comedies" at the Grand tonight. "A Cold Day" and "Chip o' the Old Block. Both have musical specialties.

On Wednesday evening, the great and only James J. Corbett, "champion pugilist of the world, gentleman and actor," will appear at the Grand opera house in the title role of his play, "Gentleman Jack." The principal interest of the evening will center about the boxing match.

On Tuesday evening Barlow & Dalton's minstrels is booked for the Grand, and on next Saturday evening the booking says we shall have Willie Collier in "A Back Number."

At Crawford's Theater.
On Monday night the Clarke & Parkinson Comedy company will open a week's engagement at the Kansas avenue house with the farce comedy, "The Two Americans." This company comes well recommended and promises to give nothing but comedy with musical specialties thrown in. Mr. Parkinson is the star comedian.

creek. The stream is very favorable to the breeding of such animals, and it is predicted that one day Big Stranger will fairly swarm with them. A farmer from that section stated last night that beavers have dammed Big Stranger in three places on his farm.

Two days ago a Big Stranger trapper brought two fine beaver pelts to this city and sold them for $2 a piece. The trapper fetched the carcasses of the animals along too and sold them to a hotel man for $2.17. The stomachs of some people would refuse to accept beaver meat, but when properly treated by a chef who knows a thing or two it is said to be very palatable as well as nutritious.

All the talk in the world will not convince you so quickly as one trial of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve for Scalds, Burns, Bruises, Skin Affections and Piles. J. E. Jones

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the quickest cure for all blood diseases. Its effects are always beneficial.

Atchison, Oct. 29.—A post mortem examination was conducted on the body of A. S. Everest by Dr. Halley, of Kansas City, and Drs. W. W. and D. W. Campbell, of Atchison. Dr. Halley is the professor of anatomy at the Kansas City medical college. The examination took place in the receiving vault in Mount Vernon cemetery, and as soon as it was completed the body was buried.

The post mortem was at the instance of Eltis Everest, who had been her father's nurse during his long sickness. In spite of the fact that she was wonderfully patient and kind, according to the testimony even of her most carping critics, rumors were floating around that the patient had been slowly poisoned, and she determined to forever set the matter at rest.

The doctors found that Colonel Everest died of lympho-sarcoma, and that he was a perfect mass of disease. The liver was diseased, one lobe being shrunken. The spleen was three times normal size. The stomach was healthy, except that the lower end was somewhat thickened. There was no reason whatever to suspect the presence of poison.

Dr. Dan Campbell says that before the body was cut open, the enlarged glands, or lumps, could be felt all over the body; they began to appear on the neck a year ago, and the disease was perfectly understood from the first, but was beyond the control of medicine.

OTTAWA, K. U. C.

Saturday's Football Game at Lawrence Resulted in a Tie.

LAWRENCE, Oct. 29.—The football game between Ottawa university and Kansas university, on the McCook field at Lawrence, Saturday, resulted in a tie, the score standing 9 to 6. The game was called at 3:21. Ottawa had the ball and K. U. chose the east end.

Ottawa made a touchdown and kicked goal in less than twenty minutes. K. U. made a touchdown and kicked goal just before time was called for the first half. K. U. made a fumble during the first half, and lost at least forty yards.

There was a large delegation present from Ottawa and Baker, and also many from Topeka. There were over 2,000 people on the grounds.

It is expected that another game will be arranged between these two teams, but it will have to be after Thanksgiving.

The following are the dates of the coming games with K. U.:

November 3, K. U. vs. U. of Iowa at Iowa City; November 10, K. U. vs. Ann Arbor, at Kansas City; November 17, K. U. vs. U. of Nebraska, at Lawrence; November 24, K. U. vs. U. of Missouri, at Kansas City.

REPUBLICANS SHUT OUT.

Populist School Trustees Won't Allow It Used for a Republican Meeting.

PARSONS, Oct. 29.—A very bitter feeling has been engendered in Pioneer school district on account of politics. The school trustees, all three of whom are Populists, have issued orders that no more Republican meetings can be held in that school house.

Martin and Crain, two Republican speakers, were billed to speak at the school house, and when they arrived there quite a crowd had gathered, but the school house door was locked and they could not get in. The lady teacher said she had orders not to open it.

Terrence McCreary and Louis Wall were sent to Jacob Drenner, one of the trustees, who had a key to the house. In reply to their request for the key, Drenner told them that Republicans could not have the use of the room, notwithstanding that meetings of all kind have been held in the school house right along.

A strong partisan feeling is being shown on both sides, and the Republicans are violent in their denunciation of the Populist discrimination.

BARKER-MAXWELL.

Capt. Barker of the U. S. Navy Marries a Sister of Prof. Blackmar.

LAWRENCE, Oct. 29.—At the home of Prof. F. W. Blackmar at 6 o'clock p. m. Saturday, by Rev. Dr. Martin, ex-chancellor of the university, Capt. Albert S. Barker, late commander of the flagship Philadelphia, U. S. navy, was married to Mrs. Ellen Blackmar-Maxwell, sister of Prof. Blackmar.

The wedding was strictly private. Mrs. Maxwell is well known as the author of the "Bishop's Conversion," and other stories. Captain Barker is well known on account of effective service in the navy and as author of "Deep Sea Soundings," a result of three years' cruise on the Enterprise, and other important reports. The bride and groom left on the evening train for Chicago. Probably they will make Boston their home.

ATTACKED BY WOLVES.

Two Atchison Colored Boys With a "Possum" Chased by Wolves.

Atchison, Oct. 29.—John Farmer and Deeds Bell, two colored boys living south of town, went hunting Saturday night and had a thrilling experience. They shot a "possum," and in carrying it along the blood dripped on the ground. After proceeding about a mile through the lankle timber on Walnut creek they were suddenly started by a sniffling sound close at their heels. They looked around and observed several wolves which were following up the trail of blood. They fired at them when the infuriated beasts made a dive at them. They started to run with the wolves after them, and finally the animals gave up the chase, and the young men took a bee line for home.

OF WHAT USE.

Very absurd are the exclamations sometimes made by people from whose sails the wind has been temporarily taken, and we are often obliged to laugh while we mentally excuse the speaker by thinking that he "doesn't mean half he says." The following anecdote, from "Glimpses of the Nation's Struggle," is thus to be enjoyed—with a grain of salt:

Stringent orders had been issued in regard to foraging. The products of the country would be drawn upon along the march by regularly organized parties of men under responsible officers, who were to give receipts for everything appropriated, the accounts to be afterward adjusted by the proper persons in authority.

One morning during a halt a tall, brawny soldier approached an officer and asked:

"Lieutenant, what is this order about foraging? Can't a man forage?"

"No, orders forbid private foraging."

"Well, lieutenant, can't I go into a house and help myself?"

"No."

"Can't I even take a chicken?"

"No."

"Can't I take anything?"

"No."

"Well, then," he exclaimed with an expression of intense disgust, "I wish somebody would tell me the use in being a soldier!"—Youth's Companion.

Discord.

"Help, help!" cried the albino, with wildly staring eyes.

The candy butcher aroused himself with an effort.

"What is the matter?" he asked, considerably diverting a poor, ignorant fly from its purpose of partaking of his wares.

"The two headed girl."

"Well,"

"Each head has just discovered that the other has a fall hat trimmed just like its own, and the language is something dreadful."—Detroit Tribune.

Mabel Couldn't Have Been Jealous.

Maud—And the last thing that Henry did was to give me a kiss.

Mabel—Indeed! I should think that is about the last thing he would do—Gossip.

Out of Repair.

Miss Beacon—How did you find the scenery along the Rhine?

Miss Bacon—Horrid! It seemed to be all in ruins!—New York World.

For instance, Mrs. Chas. Rogers, of Bay City, Mich., accidentally spilled scalding water over her little boy. She promptly applied De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, giving instant relief. It's a wonderfully good salve for burns, bruises, sores, and is a cure for Piles. J. E. Jones.
